TRIBUTE FROM NZUKO MAHADUM TO A MAN OF DESTINY

In the death of Prof. Chimah Ezeomah, the Nzuko Mahadum lost a rare gem, a trailblazer and a man of destiny, whose second name is "first this" "first that":

1. First to study nomadic education at the Ph.D level in the University of Jos.
2. First to engage UNESCO grant to study nomadic education of the FULBES (Pastoralist Fulanis) in Nigeria.
3. First to be appointed the Director of the Centre for Nomadic Education, Unijos.
4. First to be appointed the Executive Secretary of the National Commission for Nomadic Education, Kaduna.
5. First Igbo to be awarded the title "Ardo" by the core Fulanis in Nigeria.
6. First to be recognized as the International Consultant and sought after by countries with large population of nomads.

Prof. Ardo Chimah Ezeomah was a dedicated member of the Nzuko Mahadum, Unijos. Ardo we miss you, sleep well in the bosom of your creator.

Adieu!

Prof. Emeka D. Ozoji FNAE
Chairman Nzuko Mahadum
